LAST TIME OUT: The Gatemen were stumped on Friday in Chatham, falling 7-4 in their second road loss of the season. A palpable crowd at Veterans Field witnessed four home runs, two of which came off Wareham bats. Starter Will Koger allowed three earned runs in four innings pitched.

MCLAIN IS THE MAN: The highly anticipated debut of Arizona State's Nick McLain did not disappoint. Starting in left field for the first time in his career, Nick lit up the Veterans Field scoreboard with a solo home run in just his second at bat of the game. McLain also delivered an RBI single late in the game to cut the Chatham lead to just two runs.

BACK AGAINST THE BRAVES: Wareham and Bourne renew their rivalry tonight for the first time in 2023, the first of six meetings between the divisional foes. Notable on the schedule are back-to-back matchups on July 4th and 5th, a home-and-home series to celebrate Independence Day. The Gatemen have not defeated Bourne since 2021, having tied three and lost three last season.

HOME COOKING: Wareham enters tonight's matchup with a 2-1 record at Spillane Field, having swept a pair of East Division opponents (Harwich and Orleans) earlier this week. In that two game span, the Gatemen outscored opponents 17-3, and the pitching staff recorded a 1.29 ERA in 17 innings pitched. They did not allow an earned run in the first 11 innings of that stretch. Offensively, Wareham is batting .291 in games at Spillane Field this summer (including three home runs), as opposed to just .190 on the road.

TONIGHT'S STARTER

RHP Ryan Osinski (Fr. - Bucknell)

Sunday will be the second start of the season for Bucknell's Ryan Osinski, who is currently in the transfer portal. Osinski has appeared in two games this season with the Gatemen, including a start on Opening Day at Falmouth. In his last outing (against Orleans), Ryan threw one inning, allowing no runs or hits and earning a save before the game was ended due to weather. This spring, the Alexandria, VA, native served as Bucknell's primary closer, finishing the season with a 2.37 ERA, a 0.95 WHIP, and eight saves as the Bison reached the Patriot League championship game.
